17th February 2023

Dear Parents/Guardians,

As we reach the end of the half term can I take this time to thank you for your support to date and provide you of a small update prior to the half term holiday to ensure there is no confusion on the return to school.

School will reopen to all pupils after the half term holiday on Monday 27th February. As mentioned in my letter on Monday this is a busy week with two key dates for National Celebrations.

As you will all be aware from the national news the Welsh Government and teaching union have been unable to come to an agreement and there are still currently three days in March which strikes have been planned for. They are listed as follows:

- 2nd March
- 15th March
- 16th March

I would like to ensure that all parents are aware of these dates and that if the government and union cannot come to an agreement and the strikes go ahead, school will potentially be closed to pupils. As soon as I have confirmation of what is going to happen, I shall make sure all parents are informed as soon as possible.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me. I hope all of the children have a wonderful half term and thank you again for your support and understanding.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J. Jones
